FIRST RESIDENT MOVES IN AT GREGORY HILLS

The first residents have moved into their new home at Gregory Hills. Kathy Sanders and Bob Kirk purchased their block in mid-2010 and Fairmont Homes NSW started work on their home in April 2011.

The Mayor of Camden, Cr Greg Warren, welcomed Kathy and Bob at a small ceremony held onsite at Gregory Hills on Thursday 28 July. Cr Warren said, "It's great to be able to welcome Kathy and Bob to one of Camden's great new communities here at Gregory Hills. Council has worked with the developer, Dart West, since 2006 to ensure that Gregory Hills is a place people can be proud to call home."

Fairmont Homes NSW director, Tom Logue, also welcomed Kathy and Bob and said he was pleased to be able to help them move in on time and on budget. Tom said they had chosen the Vogue 27 design which featured raked ceilings and skylights and an oversized timber alfresco area. "The building process went smoothly and we're really pleased to help Kathy and Bob be the first new residents at Gregory Hills."

David Taylor, General Manager, Property for Dart West Developments commented, "Gregory Hills is now coming to life. Nearly 300 families have bought their ideal block at Gregory Hills in the last 12 months, and Kathy and Bob are the first to move in. There is a limited number of great blocks remaining in the current Marcellin Release and the next release is coming up in the near future. We're really looking forward to many more residents moving in over the next few months."

David also presented Kathy and Bob with a special gift to commemorate their arrival as the first residents.

Gregory Hills offers home buyers many advantages including a convenient location, elevated land lots, views across the district and beyond to the Blue Mountains, ready to build lots and high quality parks and playgrounds.
